Alain Frey, "Qui c'est qui ?",
a surprising and diverse album...
The troubadour of modern times, a "young singer"
Embarking on his career...to become a poet!
He's there to deliver,
sing and tell you...
Stories, wonderful stories
Of spinning platters,
Of a fish, more precisely...of a tuna.
Of overflowing shopping carts;
Stories that will make you blush with joy...
Stories, savory and whimsical...
Stories of an uncommunicative cat...
Stories of a dash, of castles, of a caravan.
Shaggy-dog stories... Stories
That will make your mind wander!

Alain Frey's music brings about an unequalled freshness. It's the great classical morning music of jazz, swing and, gypsy flow, somewhere in-between Brassens, Sanseverino and Bobby Lapointe.

A clear, limpid, childish and naughty voice inhabits this spirited fellow, brimming with rare and contagious energy.

A multi-talented musician (guitar, double bass, clarinet, saxophone), mentored by the excellent Laurent Meunier (saxophone) and by Samson Schmitt (guitar), he invites us to a buoyant and wild adventure.

Universal.
