Press release: MASSOT/FLORIZOONE/HORBACZEWSKI – “Cinema Novo”

“There's so much you can do with an accordion tuba and a cello. No doubt about it. The three instruments have a lot in common: they are well equipped with a big sound, an imaginary character, a large register and a photogenic outfit.”

Michel Massot: tuba, euphonium, trombone

Tuur Florizone: accordion

Marine Horbaczewski : cello

About Tuur Florizoone (Tricycle, Musicazur, Quentin Dujardin) and Michel Massot (Trio Grande, Rêve d'éléphant Orchestra), players of these mysterious instruments, we can definitely say the following: they are two adventurous musicians, excellent improvisers and performers and, last but not least, artists in composing.

Their collaboration with well-known cellist Marine Horbaczewski allows them to improvise and exploit rich pallet ambiances, passing through the most strange, unexpected, happy and above all emotional sounds of their instruments.
